BY TELEGRAPH TO THE FREEMAN.

NOON DISPATCH

CAIRO, July 13. An arrival from Vicksburg Saturday evening, brings an officer of Grant's staff, bearer of despatches to the Government. The news is important. Port Hudson surrendered unconditionally on the 8th, and our troops marched in and took possession the 9th. They captured the entire garrison of about 7000 men, 35 field pieces, 25 siege guns, and about 10,000 stand of small arms. We have Major General Gardner, Brig. Gen. Beals, and Cols. Stetman, Mills, Smith and one or two others, names unknown.

At latest accounts Sherman was still in pursuit of Johnston, but that sagacious rebel had kept out of his way.

MEMPHIS, July 12. Reports from the army at Vicksburg are favorable. Sherman is pursuing Johnston, with every prospect of destroying his entire army. Gen. Dodge at Corinth reports that he has routed a rebel force under Forest and Biffles, that have been scouting the country north of his line, killing, wounding and capturing quite a number. Hulbut's cavalry scouts report Col. Blythe with 900 men and 4 pieces of artillery at Cold Water Station, and Gen. Chalmers at Panola. A letter received at Hernando from Chalmers states that Johnston had been fighting near Jackson and was falling back. Richardson is still in the country north of this, enforcing the conscription. Dodge will soon attend to him.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, July 14—8:30 P. M.

To Maj.-Gen. Halleck.
SIR:—My cavalry have captured 500 prisoners in addition to those previously reported. Gen. Pettigrew, of the rebel army, was killed this morning in the attack on the enemy's rear guard. His body is in our hands.
(Signed) G. G. MEADE, Maj.-Gen.

4 O'CLOCK, P. M.

BEFORE PORT HUDSON, July 8.

General:—The Mississippi river is now clear. I have the honor to inform you that the garrison of Port Hudson surrendered unconditionally this afternoon. We shall take formal possession at 7 o'clock in the morning.

(Signed) N. P. BANKS, Maj.-Gen.
U. S. GRANT, Maj. Gen.

CINCINNATI, July 15. Morgan reached Georgetown, Brown County, Ohio, at midnight. He is pretty well hemmed in, and his chances of escape slight.

Gunboats and a very large force went up the river yesterday to dispute his crossing. The Ohio river is too high to ford.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, July 14.

The news of the retreat of Lee and his army into Virginia, reached Gen. Meade's headquarters at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, when Gen. Buford's division of cavalry was ordered to falling Waters, where they met and captured a brigade of rebels under Gen. Pettigrew who was killed.

Gen. Meade held a council of war on Saturday evening, consisting of his corps commanders, when the question of attack was freely discussed. All the Generals were in favor of an attack excepting Gens. Sedgwick, Slocum, Sykes and French.

Gen. Meade himself was in favor of active operations, but finding his corps commanders equally divided, he hesitated to give the order, and the rebel army was allowed to make its escape.

An order was issued last night for a movement along the whole line at 7 o'clock this morning.

Yesterday afternoon about 2000 Pennsylvania militia who had arrived in the vicinity of Hagerstown, were taken to the front and put into action.

They were ordered to charge the enemy, which was done, but not without some loss.

NEW YORK, July 15. The World publishes the following special dispatch:

HAGERSTOWN, July 14. The rebel army commenced to retreat across the Potomac Sunday night.

Lee sent all his wagon trains and plundered stock over at Williamsport.

The ford is still very deep, and some wagons and a few cattle were lost.

They arrived at the pontoon bridge at 12 o'clock last night, and commenced crossing a t once. Hill and Ewell seemed to have got away together, and Longstreet and Stuart protected the rear.

Stuart was driven beyond here last night by Kilpatrick, who this morning moved down towards Downsville, and with Buford attacked Longstreet and Stuart, while attempting to cross. We presume a corps from the Army of the Potomac was also engaged.

The rebel picket outside Hagerstown, was withdrawn at 4 o'clock this morning. Lee himself crossed the Potomac on Sunday. We captured between 1000 and 2000 prisoners. The rebels took away several thousand stolen horses.

Firing at Downsville has been brisk all day. The retreat was hastened by the want of subsistence, they having eaten up everything here, and sent for supplies to Martinsburg. Lee will apt to occupy Winchester at once, unless a Federal force interferes.

Several hundred rebels are reported to have been drowned while crossing at the ford, and on the bridge.

NEW YORK, July 15—6 P. M. There was no stock market this afternoon. The appearances now indicate that the mob have become convinced that sufficient military is in town, and shortly to arrive, to stop this terrible work.

The thieves have confined themselves to sparsely settled districts in the upper part of the city. The police have bravely done their duty, seconded by the military.

The announcement that the 7th Regiment has arrived near the city, and the 71st, 37th 23rd, and 8th and other regiments are also within a few hour's ride, has spread consternation among the rioters. Some houses have been burned in Yorkville and Harlem.

This afternoon the mob again collected in Ead Street, near where a negro was hanging, failing to disperse them, a howitzer was trained upon them with canister.

The first discharge wiped out six. Two more discharges increased the number to 22, when all dispersed.

Two negroes were killed this afternoon. Colored people are fleeing from the city in all directions.

Gold has fallen to $1.27. The markets are all dull and nominal, no business being done of importance.

The City council have unanimously passed an ordinance appropriating $2,500,000 to exempt poor conscripts.

The rioters have recommenced in Second Avenue, and are burning the buildings between 28th and 29th streets.

There is also a serious riot in 3d Avenue, which threatens to be extensive. The police and military are hotly engaged.

Cruelties of the worst kind are practised on the blacks.

The Hudson River Railroad have commenced to relay the tracks torn up by the mob. They have a gunboat in the river to protect the road.

The mob surrounded the gas works at the foot of 14th Street and smashed the windows and beat several persons.

A detachment of troops took possession of the works which the mob now threaten to destroy, and murder every body in them.

The gas company have requested a sparing use of the gas, owing to the limited supply.

Gen. Brown received intelligence that Forts Richmond and Columbus would be attacked. The General thought the mob would get a lesson if they did.

A terrible onslaught was made on the negro dwellings in York street last night, and amid the shrieks and groans of the unfortunate women and children, the whole precinct was devoted to vastation.

A collision occurred on 35th street this morning, in which it is reported three soldiers were killed.

Mayor Opdyke recommends the immediate proclamation of martial law, but Gov. Seymour opposes it.

Boston, July 15. We learn from conductor Holt of the midnight train from the westward, that a fierce riot is raging in Troy New York.

At half past 3 o'clock, afternoon, yesterday, the mob had demolished the office of the Troy Times and driven off the telegraph operators who had gone down to Greenbush, opposite Albany.

An outbreak was expected in Albany.

The latest news from New York, dated last evening, states that the riot was subsiding.

Artillery had been planted in the Park to sweep Broadway. Telegraph communication will soon be re-established with New York.

This city, (Boston) is quiet, and no indication of further trouble at present.

Notice.

This certifies that I have this day given my son William H. Johnson, his time during the remainder of his minority, and will hereafter claim none of his earnings or pay any debts of his contracting after this date.

EBENEZER JOHNSON.
Witness, WILLARD B. PORTER.
